Rocks news

By CASSIE BALDWIN

February brought rain to make the ice and snow go away. The land is wet and muddy now.

The memorial service for Calvin Tolley was held at Piney Ridge Church on Saturday, January 30 at 2 p.m. A small crowd attended.

Melvin Garrett was moved to University Hospital in Charlottesville last Monday, February 1.

The Pastor's Conference of the Appomattox Association was held on Monday.

Mrs. Lockie Moore was moved to the Medical Center in Lynchburg on Monday.

The Friendship Circle met on Tuesday afternoon with Phyllis Richardson.

Benny Massey returned home from the hospital on Wednesday. Hope he continues to improve.

Edith Tolley is back home after a few days in the hospital. Hopes she has a speedy recovery.

Melvin Garrett is critically ill. Our prayers are with him. May he have a very speedy recovery.

Get well wishes go out to Dorothy Hogan and brother, Reed Foster who are in Southside Hospital. They are sister and brother of Mrs. Jim Frank Ranson.

January brought us snow and ice; sickness and injury; cars stuck in ditches and people stranded away from homes. Neighbors responded to neighbor with a caring spirit. How happy to be surrounded by so many in whom the spirit of God dwells.

After being trapped by all that ice and snow a good number came out on last Sunday for the morning and evening services.

Our January Bible study has been rescheduled for Sunday, February 21 and Wednesday the 24th and Sunday 28 and Wednesday, March 3 again. All studies will begin at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship hall.

A large number attended the dedication service and reception for Dan and Edna Carson on January 31 at Freedom Baptist Church that afternoon. They were appointed as missionaires to Kenya, Africa. They left on February 3 from Richmond for a two year tour.

May the Lord bless them in a great way and be close to them.

W.M.U. Focus Week February 14-21.

Very sad gloom was cast over our community and county when the news that our beloved friend; Lockie Moore passed away at the Medial Center in Lynchburg on Thursday morning after a short illness.

We extend our sympathy to the Moore family and relatives. The funeral will be at Rocks Church on Saturday at 2 p.m.

Rev. Wes Williams and C. E. Richardson went to Roanoke Friday morning to get Bernard Moore who came by plane from Texas where he had been called due to the death of his mother, Lockie Moore. Raymond and some of his family of New York and Betty's husband arrived Thursday night of Conn. Betty had been here since her mother entered the hospital.

Willie Harvey returned home from the hospital last Sunday after surgery. Congratulations to Martha Paulette who won the birthday cake over WTTX on Thursday.

Get well wishes go out to John Henry Ranson who hurt his shoulder after a fall on the ice.

Zion Baptist news

Regular preaching services were held at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday at 11 a.m., with our pastor, the Rev. Charles Lewis, presiding.

The Senior Choir rendered beautiful music, with Mr. Howard Allen, our pianist.

A large crowd of members and guests attended the service, which featured a challenge message by the Rev. Lewis, with the subject, "God Will Provide."

The Chambers and Lee families from Buckingham were among the visitors Sunday. They sang several songs which everyone enjoyed. The offering was great.

Our sympathy goes out to the Lawson and Kemp families in the loss of their loved one, Mrs. Magnolia Wallace.

The Rev. Lewis was dinner guest to Deacon and Mrs. Frank Johnson Sunday. We were happy to have all the Mack family from Richmond as visitors for the weekend. Our sick are improving slowly.

The Men's Club of Zion Baptist Church wil have their 39th anniversary Feb. 28 at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. Tim Lawing will be our special guest. He will appear with his choir.
